

HENRY OF PELHAM

After their father's tragically early death, the youthful Speck brothers, Paul, Matthew and Daniel, persevered with the family dream, building Henry of Pelham winery into a Canadian star. Their latest project reflects their brotherhood—Riesling, Gewürztraminer and Chardonnay blended into a tangy, aromatic and full-bodied VQA white (LCBO 126144, $13.95); Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Merlot merging as a deliciously fruity VQA red (LCBO 126151, $13.95). They call the wines Sibling Rivalry and there's a game of rock, paper, scissors happening on the label. Says Daniel: "Over the years, we've settled a lot of things that way!"
